Why Moot Court Competitions?

Moot classes are valuable, not just for future law aspirants, but for any student looking to strengthen their critical thinking, public speaking, and problem-solving skills.

BENEFITS
OF MOOTING

- Mooting introduces the legal system of India and realises how law operates.
- Mooting offers a hands-on introduction to court procedure, especially the appellate system.
- It demystifies legal procedures, terminology, and the role of judges and lawyers.
- It helps in Building Critical Thinking and Analytical Skills, Students learn to identify key legal issues, interpret facts, and apply laws. These skills are vital not just for lawyers but also for success in subjects like Political Science, Business Studies, and General Studies.
- Mooting sharpens oral advocacy, it also helps in learning how to argue logically, respond under pressure, and present ideas persuasively.
- Children who may be shy about speaking often find it easier to express themselves freely in a virtual competition setting.
- It serves as outstanding preparation for debates, MUNs, or group discussions during college entrance procedures.
- Students acquire valuable experience in structured legal writing, case analysis, and footnoting, crucial skills for academic achievement.

- Mooting promotes the utilization of libraries, online legal databases, and correct citation practices.
- For students preparing for CLAT, AILET, or LSAT-India, mooting offers valuable practical experience that reflects the realities of studying law.
- It helps in building the foundation of legal aptitude, vocabulary, and reasoning skills.
- Mooting frequently involves rights-based disputes, familiarizing students with concepts such as equality, freedom, and justice. It fosters civic awareness and a sense of responsibility among young individuals.
- Mooting takes place in teams, where students engage as both speakers and researchers. This format fosters collaboration, role division, and strategic thinking.
- Involvement in moot courts can enhance college applications, particularly for programs in the liberal arts, humanities, and pre-law.
